DAY 1 PHOTOS

to walk as ONE

All too often, people quote either some spiritual book they found at a yard sale or a flaky televangelist with a message of planting a seed for prosperity. They call it 'Christian' and many think that makes it good. The message is one of false hope, twisting quotes from the Bible and the message of the Gospel into a pretzel of confusion and razzle-dazzle. Gimmicky gifts and silly ideas are portrayed as serious elements of faith that God so loves and blesses. So much of what passes for Christian spirituality is shallow and superstitious. It's the equivalent of spiritual junk food.

Faith needs to be nourished and sustained. Jesus knows this and offers us the best meal we can have—the gift of finest wheat, the Eucharist. It unites us to Him, joining our minds, hearts and souls with His. We become what we receive, and what we receive is the Body and Blood of Christ. Nourished and sustained in body and soul, we can say with Saint Paul that it is no longer I who live, but Christ who dwells in me. Spiritual junk food may move people to pray, but it will never give people strength to stay.

Where do you go for your spiritual nourishment? There are no easy fixes, no simple answers, no shortcuts. The way of the cross is the way of Christ. In the Eucharist we join ourselves to Him and walk with Him through sacrifice, discipline and prayer. We find in Him the banquet of life and the manna of heaven.

I was reading an article in the Journal of the Word on Fire on Mike Piazza. In the article one statement, besides others, caught my attention. It read, "Don't be afraid of change. It may not be what you expected. Don't map out your life. Remember the joke: If you want to make God laugh, tell Him your plans. Always be open to going down a different path then you thought." So lets not fool ourselves in thinking we are in charge. Some of us are still being molded for what God needs us to do. Don't fight it. Meditate on this throughout the week. Amen!

If you have not marked your calendar yet, please do. The "Silver Rose" will be visiting our Parishes again this year. The schedule will be August 27th, 6pm at St. Brigid & August 28th, 7pm at St. Marks. You have two opportunities to join us for the prayer and we don't want you to miss this.

COR Initiative is held the first Sunday of the month at St. Mark's from 9:15-10:15AM. For the month of August it will be held on the 3rd Saturday (instead of usual 2nd Saturday), 8/17/24 at St. Brigid Rectory/Offices from 8:00-9:00AM. Our theme will be: Redemption: Experiencing Christ's saving love and grace. All our men from teens to seniors looking to strengthen their faith are welcome. We look forward to see you there!
